

A Black
History
Salute to African American
Male
Achievers

Inspiring the next generation of leaders

Spirit of Peace Awards

PRESENTED BY Stop the Violence Increase the Peace Foundation and Amer-I-Can in conjunction with California State Assemblymember Mike Davis, Los Angeles Urban League, Brotherhood Crusade, the Regional Violence Prevention Coalition and a host of community, faith-based and political leaders and organizations.

with generous support from...

PRESENTED BY STOP THE VIOLENCE INCREASE THE PEACE FOUNDATION AND AMER-I-CAN

PRESENTED BY Stop the Violence Increase the Peace Foundation and Amer-I-Can in conjunction with California State Assemblymember Mike Davis, Los Angeles Urban League, Brotherhood Crusade, the Regional Violence Prevention Coalition and a host of community, faith-based and political leaders and organizations.

Awareness / Empowerment / Accountability

200 Youth will be invited, inspired and empowered. Your support will provide these young people a unique opportunity to be mentored by dynamic African American Achievers in a nurturing and powerful program. Backpacks and other educational tools will also be given to all the participants of the youth luncheon.

The Responsibility of Self-Determination

HOST COMMITTEE

Congresswoman Diane Watson,
33rd Congressional District
Congresswoman Laura Richardson,
37th Congressional District
Assemblymember Mike Davis,
48th Assembly District

DANNY J. BAKEWELL, SR.

JOHN MACK

JIM BROWN

Spirit of Peace Awards

A Black History Salute to African American Male Achievers

Monday, February 23, 2009

11:00am - 2:00pm

California African American Museum
600 State Drive – Exposition Park
Los Angeles, California 90037

Please join us as we honor three icons of leadership in our community

Danny J. Bakewell, Sr., Executive Publisher of the Los Angeles Sentinel Newspaper & Former President of the Brotherhood Crusade

John Mack, Vice President, Los Angeles Police Commission & Former President of the Los Angeles Urban League

Jim Brown, NFL Hall of Famer & Founder of Amer-I-Can

$250.00 VIP Tickets
$125.00 Individual Tickets

For more information and sponsorship opportunities contact:
Kim Anthony at 323.777.4893